SOFT & SUSTAINABLE PRODUCTS – IT’S WHO WE ARE & AT THE HEART OF WHAT WE DO

Making a positive difference for people and our planet has always been our way since we started.

Cariloha is more than a name or a brand – it’s A COMFY WAY TO SAVE THE PLANET™, where we care about the earth today, so we have a better home for future generations tomorrow.

It’s easy. We provide customers with soft, sustainable alternatives to traditional fabrics. Not hard – just soft on you and the planet.

SUSTAINABLE BAMBOO PRODUCTS

Everyone who sleeps in, bathes with, or wears Cariloha's soft, sustainable products is intrinsically giving back to an eco-friendlier planet.

SAVES OUR SOILS

Bamboo prevents erosion and retains soil nutrients.

CLEANS OUR AIR

Bamboo produces more oxygen and sequesters more carbon.

GROWS ORGANICALLY

Bamboo requires no fertilizer, pesticides, or harmful chemicals to grow.

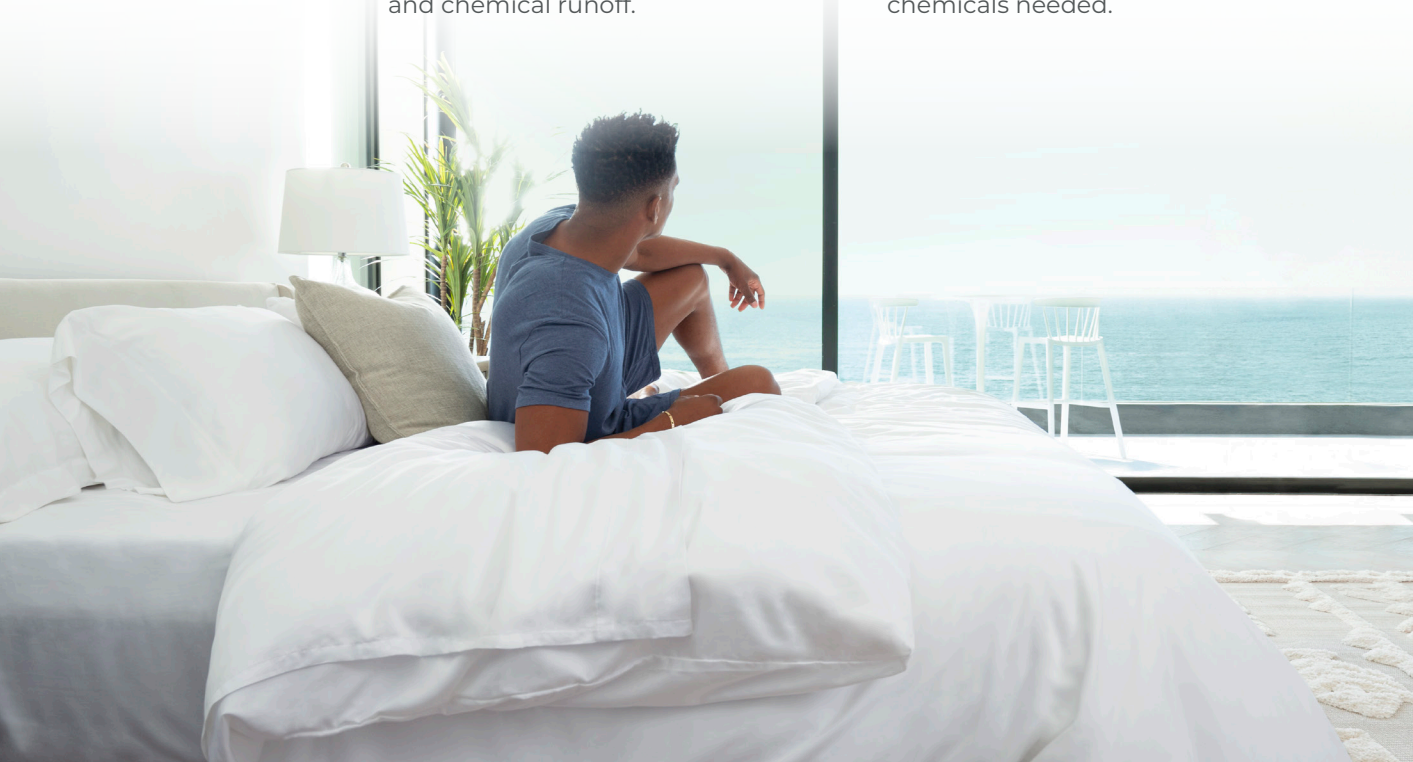

SAVES OUR OCEANS

Bamboo is rain-fed and prevents dangerous water and chemical runoff.

REPLENISHES NATURALLY

Bamboo grows right back. No reseeding or harmful chemicals needed.

A COMFY WAY TO SAVE THE PLANET™

Sustainable living is in our DNA, not just part of a trend, but who we are since our inception. And, because Cariloha products are carbon neutral from farm to fabric, life is better in bamboo. It's a Comfy Way to Save the Planet.™

CARILOHA CARES BY:

Offsetting 100% of our carbon emissions from our products

Reducing non-point-source pollution with organically grown bamboo

Conserving water by harvesting from authorized rain-fed bamboo fields

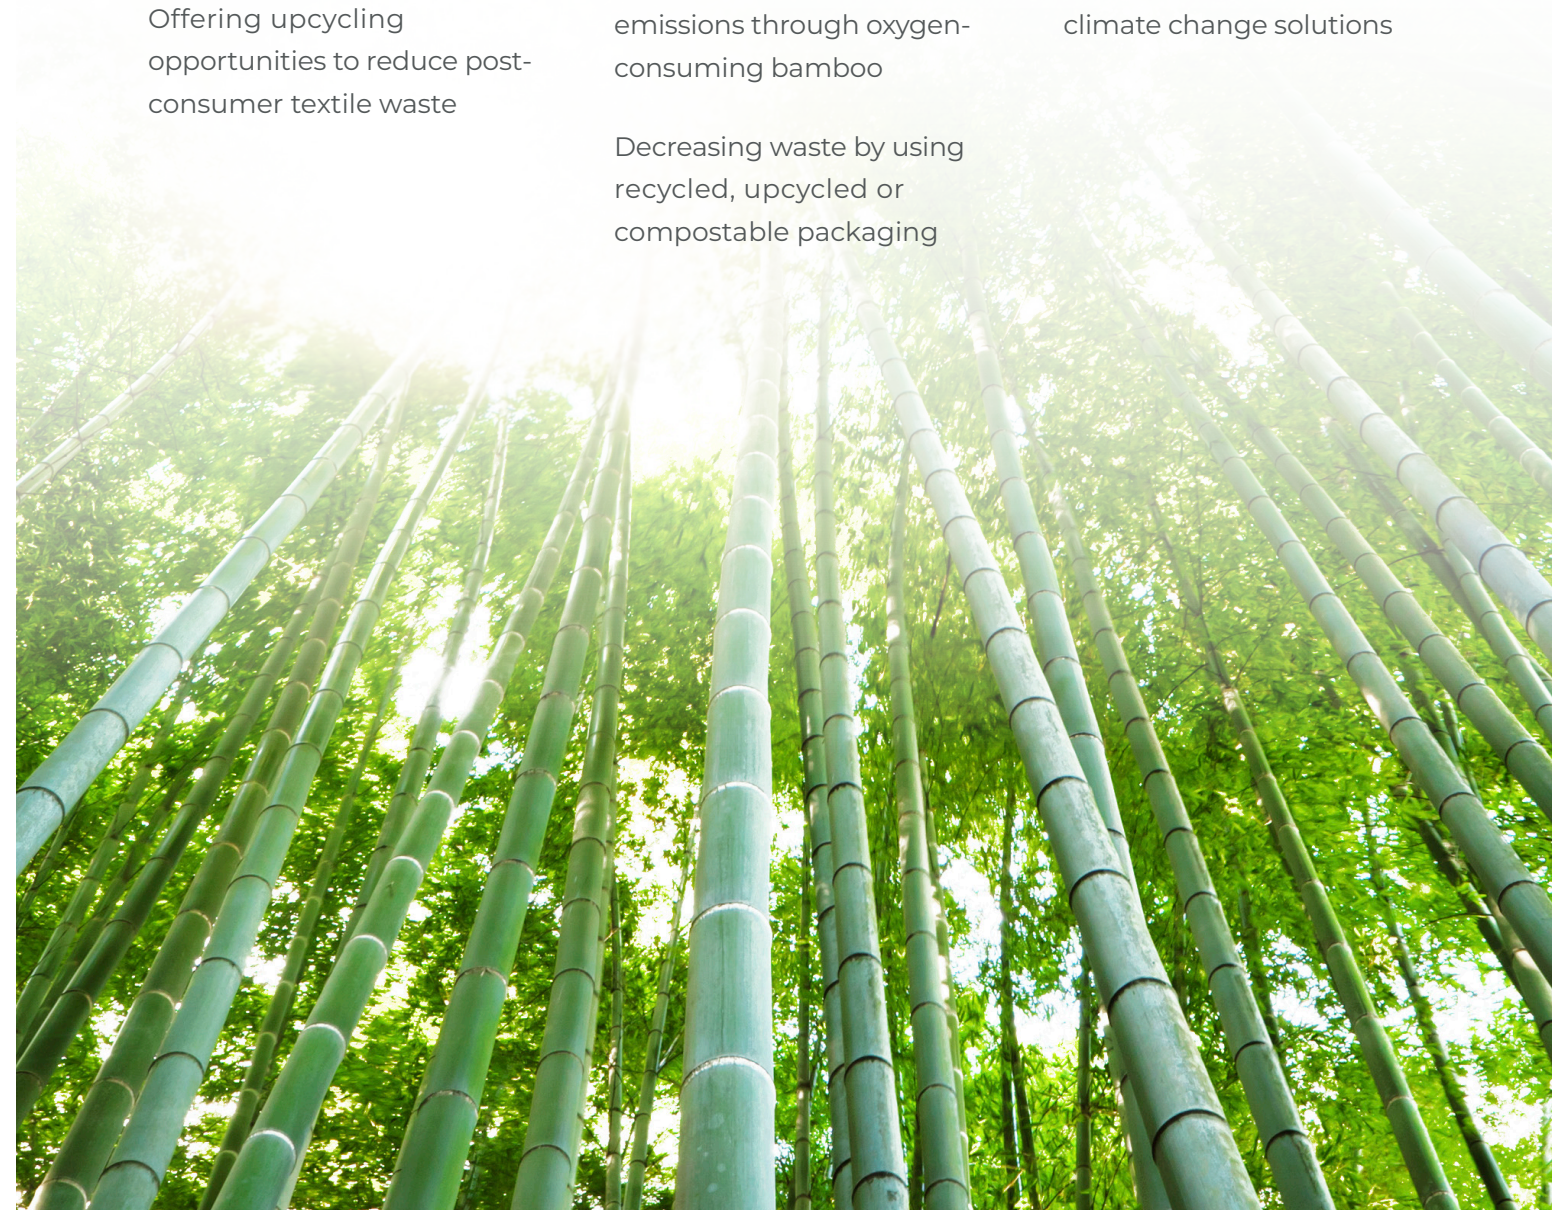

Utilizing sustainable fabrics

Minimizing carbon dioxide emissions through oxygen-consuming bamboo

Advocating for action on climate change solutions

Offering upcycling opportunities to reduce post-consumer textile waste

Decreasing waste by using recycled, upcycled or compostable packaging
